WILL OPEN SATURDAY

The "Smokehouse", the new billiard and pool parlor being fitted up in the Trust Company's building on Fifth street, failed to open to the public last night, according to arrangements, and the formal opening is now set for Saturday evening.

The projectors of this enterprise are Mr. J. J. Painter and Mr. W. A. Work, of Mansfield, Ohio, and the opening was necessarily postponed on account of death in Mr. Painter's family, he being called to Mansfield by telegram yesterday.

"The Smokehouse" is destined to become one of the most popular resorts of Monessen, being fitted with the very finest furniture and in the most modern and tasteful style, and the management assures the public that the very best order will be maintained under all conditions, and at all times, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to be present at the opening Saturday. Mr. Painter was formerly a salesman with the Rigby Cigar Co., while Mr. Work was engaged with the Pittsburg & Fort Wayne Railroad Company, and both come among us with excellent reputations.

Building Boom at Connellsville

If present plans for new business structures carry out, the coming spring and summer will witness the greatest building boom Greater Connellsville has ever experienced. Plans for no less than six imposing buildings are being considered. The indications are that the major portion of them will reach fulfillment. They are to grace different portions of the business section.

FAMILY DOG ROUTS BURGLAR

Scares Away Bold House Breaker who Made Early Attempt to Enter R. G. Stanley's Residence

A bold attempt to burglarize the home of R. G. Stanley, was frustrated last night by a pet dog, whose barking scared the miscreant away before he had succeeded in effecting an entrance. Unusual daring was exhibited as the attempt was made between 10 and 11 o'clock. The thief tried both the kitchen door and window, and was endeavoring to force the former when Mr. Stanley, who was upstairs, was aroused by the furious barking of the dog. He secured his revolver, and going to an upstairs window threw it open. He was just in time to see the man disappear through the back yard. But for the dog the thief would in all probability have succeeded in gaining an entrance. In his sudden flight he left behind a "jimmie" and a sandbag.

The crowds continue to grow larger each day, as the people of Monessen know a good thing when they see it. VALUABLE CAPTURE MADE BY WASHINGTON POLICE.

Negro Who Was Arrested for Attemping to Pass Forged Check May be a Much Wanted Burglar.

IN POLICE CIRCLES

Pat Hurley, a well known character about town, was fined $2 and costs by Mayor Shutterly this morning on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Pat promised to ride the water wagon in future.

A Finn who was unable to give his name was arrested by Officer Hamilton last night on suspicion. He was caught in the act of climbing over the fence into the yard of Arthur Winstone, who lives on Sixth street hill. Through an interpreter he claimed that his hat had blown over the fence and that he was going to get it. Officer Province said that he had watched the man for several nights. At the hearing this morning he was discharged.

Convicted of Manslaughter.

After being out less than three hours the jury found Vido Novakovis, the New Florence speakeasy proprietor, guilty of manslaughter for killing Constable George S. Anderson. The defense was that Anderson at the head of a raid had neglected to read his warrant with the result that Novakovis thought he was being robbed and shot to defend himself.

The capture of a negro who is thought by the Washington, Pa. police officials to be a noted colored criminal, was effected last night when Charles Braxton was arrested by Officers Ditzer and Greer after the man had attempted to obtain money at the Lewis pharmacy on a forged check to which had been signed the name of former Sheriff C. E. Carothers. The check was written on the Citizens National bank, of Washington, for the sum of $50. Immediately upon seeing the paper the drug clerk recognized the signature as not being genuine so bungling was the forging. Mr. Carothers was questioned and he immediately notified Chief Rankin of the affair.

Officers Greer and Ditzer were sent after the man immediately upon being notified, and it was only after some difficulty that Braxton was located and arrested on East Chestnut street, near the Gaybart hotel. Upon searching the negro, the forged check could not be found. It is the opinion of the officers that this was destroyed by Braxton when he failed in having the thing exchanged for money.

Braxton claims to have come to to Washington from New York. He answers the description of the negro who attempted to rob the residence of J. E. Murray, Acheson, avenue, Sunday night and who in his attempt to escape, slashed Alfred Murray in the hand.

A standard oil magnate says "you cannot legislate a gallon of oil out of existence." Probably not, but we can put a stop to the practice of sending the price of a gallon of oil out of sight.

WHILE there are some newspapers in the land which are an offense to decency and others whose editors are at least fifty years behind the times, the great majority are ably and honestly edited, containing from day to day a vast amount of information and seeking to promote the best interests of the republic and its people.

CAREFUL inspection of work and the machinery with which it is done, is something that might be expected of any government official on his trip to the Panama canal, but the knowledge that the president visited the homes of the poor Jamaican laborers and investigated their conditions for himself, is something that strikes the true American "right where he lives."

SOME of the inmates of the prison at Somerset were evidently very much disappointed the other day when the sheriff entered their cells and by dint of strenuous searching discovered the saws and files and other instruments by means of which they hoped to work their way to that freedom which their crimes against society had forfeited. One of the workmen on the new court house observed suspicious signs about one of the windows and reported to the sheriff. Hence the crushing blow to the aspirations of the prisoners.

FROM WEAK TO STRONG EYE

From discomfort to pleasure is the work that glasses do when proper glasses are properly fitted. Before you can procure the proper glasses you must have your eyes examined by an optician. Then the glasses for your glasses must be so made that they will correct the defect. We will do all this for you and charge you for the glasses.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples with some people bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenuous and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

Where You See the Oldest Trees in the World

IMAGINE this if you can—3 square miles of forest, containing 3000 trees measuring over 300 feet in height and 50 feet around. When you consider that every one of these trees is as high as the ordinary city skyscraper of today, and that there are 3000 of them in this one forest, you have only a vague idea of the sight before you as you ride among them and look up among their branches Even these are larger than any trees near your home Expert estimate places the age of these trees at 8000 years. They were growing before the pyramids of Egypt were built The

The Store That's Always Busy

THE QUALITY IS RIGHT AND THE PRICE IS RIGHT

WHY? By honest, fair and upright dealing our trade has increased so rapidly that in two years we have been compelled to increase our floor space from 4,400 to 11,000 square feet.

Day after day, in our store, customers remark that our stock of furniture is far above anything in the city in quality and that our prices are wonderfully low.

Goods that are cheap in quality should be cheap in price.

As for our stock we simply show the best the whole wide world produces, pricing legitimately and meeting our patrons more than half way in the matter of accommodations.

That's Why We've Grown.

Come in and take a look at our line of BED ROOM SUITS, and odd DRESSERS, in Mahogany, Bird's Eye Maple or Oak. We also call especial attention to our line of DINING ROOM SUITS, BUFFETS and SIDEBOARDS, in either Early English Weathered or Golden Oak. In quality, design, workmanship and finish they are unequaled. Get our prices on Davenports and Leather Rockers.

One of our Carpets or Room size Rugs will add a wonderful "newness" to that dining room for Thanksgiving. AND THAT'S NOT ALL. We carry the largest line of Builder's Hardware, Gas and Coal Ranges, Gas and Coal Heaters, Paints, Oils, Glass, Shelf Housefurnishing Goods, that is carried under one roof in the Monongahela Valley. AT THE THEATRE

At the Monessen Opera House Friday night, November 23, Robert Fitzsimmons will appear in his great comedy drama success, "A Fight For Love" which proved one of the most successful of last year's offerings. The story is one of intense dramatic interest and presents several strong scenes—the blacksmith's shop, where the horse is shod in full view of the audience, and the prize ring, where Bob spars three rounds with a noted boxer, are among the most effective and realistic. The cast is headed by Miss Julia May Clifford, who is said to possess an extraordinary amount of talent and beauty, and includes the names of several well known players.

FAUST—SATURDAY NIGHT, NOV. 24

Labadie's "Faust" pleased a large audience at the Alcazar last night. All of the characters were exceptionally well played, and the brocken scene was something new and original, with Mr. Labadie. It was indeed a surprise and the performance throughout was pronounced to be on an equal footing with the Morrison if indeed it did not surpass that attraction.—New Castle Ind.
